

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Melissa Traugh; 6615657659

melissa.traugh@bizfed.org

May 11, 2026

CENTRAL VALLEY BUSINESS FEDERATION POLITICAL ACTION COMMITTEE ANNOUNCES ENDORSEMENTS OF BUSINESS-FRIENDLY CANDIDATES ACROSS THE CENTRAL VALLEY

FRESNO, CA — The Central Valley Business Federation Political Action Committee (BizFed PAC) today announced a new round of endorsements for candidates across the Central Valley who have demonstrated a commitment to supporting economic growth, job creation, infrastructure investment, public safety, and policies that strengthen the region's business climate.

The endorsements reflect the PAC's ongoing mission to support leaders who understand the unique needs of the Central Valley and are committed to creating an environment where businesses, workers, and communities can thrive.

The endorsed candidates include:

- Annalisa Perea – Assembly District 31
- David Couch – Assembly District 32
- Alexandra Macedo – Assembly District 33
- David Tangipa – Assembly District 8
- Nathan Magsig – State Senate District 12
- Esmeralda Soria – State Senate District 14
- Danielle Parra – Fresno City Council, District 5
- Mike Karbassi – Fresno County Supervisor, District 1
- Margaret Mims – Fresno County Supervisor, District 4
- Chris Parlier – Kern County Supervisor, District 2
- Jeff Flores – Kern County Supervisor, District 3

The Central Valley Business Federation Political Action Committee will continue engaging voters and supporting candidates committed to keeping the Central Valley competitive, business-friendly, and economically strong.

The Central Valley Business Federation Political Action Committee (BizFed PAC) is a project of the Central Valley Business Federation dedicated to supporting business-friendly candidates and advancing policies that strengthen the Central Valley economy, workforce, and quality of life.